++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing to clear spells and isolated showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain at first this evening will soon ease and clear away to leave a mainly dry night with clear spells. The odd shower may arrive in the west towards morning as the wind slowly freshens. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Sunday:
A dry start for many with some sunny spells, however scattered blustery showers will soon develop, these turning heavy and perhaps locally thundery during the afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Further showers on Monday before heavy rain arrives Monday night. Showers and longer spells of rain on Tuesday, with a risk of strong winds. Largely dry and bright on Wednesday.
